

Meet Your North American Sales Representative

North American Company's recent strategic regional alignment will prove to be highly beneficial to your business. Your sales representative, Luke Cosme, can customize services and training to meet the needs of each individual agent who has placed a commitment with North American. As your regional sales representative, Luke can also assist you in determining case placement, sales strategies and active recruiting.

A seasoned North American representative, Luke's varied career with North American began in 1997 as a policyowner services specialist. In 1998, he began his tenure in the Marketing Department where he served on our Sales Support team prior to becoming associate director of financial institution markets. In 2004 Luke assumed the position of sales vice president and has been providing personalized service to our distribution partners ever since.
